The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our backs, throats, feet and legs, but the stomach is utterly indifferent to us until it finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. The Golden Medical Discovery cures "stomach" indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what state it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound or in one of our elegant stamps, or cloth-bound for 21 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

MORE DIME NOVEL "HEROES."

Earl Bullock, a boy bandit of Lawrence, Kan., accompanied by William McKay, 15 years old, of Jacksonville, Fla., yesterday in an attempt to repeat his exploit of a month ago, robbed the Eudora (Kansas) State Bank of $800 after shooting Fred Starr, a banker, and later probably mortally wounded himself when closely pressed by armed citizens.

In his first holdup of the Eudora State Bank Bullock, who is 17 years old, shot and killed a policeman.

Bullock and McKay entered the state bank about closing time. Fred Starr, cashier of the Kaw Valley State Bank of Eudora, who was in the state bank with his day's clearing, stood by as the outlaws held up the state bank's cashier, Henry Wilson. Although Starr offered no resistance to the hold-up, Bullock shot him through the jaw. Snatching more than $800, Bullock and McKay fled. Each youth had two revolvers.

Cashier Wilson spread the alarm and citizens armed with shotguns, rifles and revolvers pursued the bandits across the fields. In attempting to swim the Kaw river the boys lost ground and a few minutes later the pursuers were at their heels.

McKay surrendered, but Bullock, wrenching the revolvers from his falling partner's hands, sped on into the woods. John Miller, a farmer, who knew nothing about the pursuit, stepped into Bullock's path and the boy, thinking him a pursuer, fired several shots that barely missed Miller. Seeing that the youth was ready to shoot at anyone, the pursuers fired a score of shots at Bullock who returned the fire.

Thus the chase continued for some time, none of the shots exchanged between the citizens and their quarry taking effect. The hunted robber gradually lost ground and, with scant hope of escape, he stopped and shouted defiance at the fast approaching hunters.

"I have only one bullet left, but I'll beat you yet," he shouted, and fired his remaining bullet through his own head. Thinking Bullock dead, most of the pursuers turned their attention to McKay with the intention of lynching him, some announced. This attempt to deal out summary vengeance was thwarted by officers, who hurried McKay to the Lawrence jail in an automobile.

According to McKay Bullock had been living at a fashionable hotel in Jacksonville under the name of "J. A. Donaldson." He had money on deposit to the Florida National Bank under that name, McKay said.

McKay is a tall, slender and apparently weak youth, who was led into the crime by Bullock's lurid description of the thrilling life of a desperado.

All of the money taken from the bank yesterday was found in Bullock's pockets after he shot himself.

Bullock was unconscious up to a late hour and he will probably die. Cashier Starr's wound is said to be not serious.

EARTHQUAKE AND CYCLONE.

While Santo Domingo has been rocking with earthquake tremors for the last four days, it has been swept by a cyclone of unparalleled violence and deluged with such a flood from the heavens that its whole little world is a quaking bog. The face of the land is distorted with chasms and upheavals, and whole farms have slipped and slid about like coins in a wet platter. Feet of Paik, torn and demolished by wind and flood, lies in ruins, with 19 dead already found in its wreckage. Gales are raged, its houses blown flat and its terror-dumb inhabitants roused only by new horrors when a great earth upheaval shook the ground and the bed of the sea and sent a billow of destruction across the land, running high as a man's head through the streets of the town and completing the devastation begun by the unloosed torrents of the skies and the hurricane that had planned its path level. Many lie dead in Cape Haitien, drowned by the same sea flood which curled up the custom house there like a leaf and left it a scattered ruin. Death, wreck and ruin is everywhere and the loss of property is incalculable. Rain has poured steadily, accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning, interrupted with quiverings of the earth for four days continuously.

All communication with the interior of the island has been destroyed. The few ships which have dared to attempt to reach any port during this unprecedented cyclone report experiences which the oldest mariners declare exceed all tales of sea horrors.

Torrential rains, causing serious flood, have fallen at Kingston, Jamaica, since last Friday. The downpour continues, the daily fall averaging ten inches. In one day the precipitation amounted to 13 inches. Many cases of drowning are reported, while the property damage is incalculable. The banana plantations in the north and northeastern portions of the island have been badly damaged by the storm. Thousands of acres of trees have been leveled.

Fifty years' experience of an Old Nurse—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child, it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle, 50c and $1.00 per bottle, at Leadbeater's.
